

MISSION

The Cloverdale Community Kitchen (CCK) exists to build a strong and healthy community with a focus on alleviating poverty. Our major area of emphasis is food security for the most vulnerable in our population.

CURRENT PARTNERS

Our current partners are included but not limited to: Langley Food Bank, Surrey Urban Mission, United Way, Wagner Hills Recovery House, Nightshift, The Launching Pad, Lookout Housing & Health Society, Options Community Services, Save-on-Foods, and local farmers and vegetable wholesalers.

VISION

Ultimately, our vision is to help Surrey and Langley be a healthy and caring community for everyone.

SERVICES

CCK serves Surrey, Langley, and White Rock with the following programs:

COMMUNITY MEALS

CCK provides approximately 270 community meals to the homeless, seniors, and those on disability on site.

MOBILE MEALS

CCK currently delivers approximately 450 warm meals a week to seniors and other individuals and families that cannot cook for themselves.

FRASER VALLEY REGIONAL FOOD BANK

CCK distributes food to 300-400 food bank clients on a weekly basis, as well as, distributes food to recovery houses, community kitchens, and other charitable organizations.

CLOVERDALE CHRISTMAS HAMPER PROGRAM

CCK helps over 600 people with food and toys at Christmas time.

EMERGENCY WEATHER SHELTER

CCK opens its doors for a 25 bed emergency weather shelter and had 1,500 stays this past year.

CLOVERDALE COMMUNITY CYCLES

CCK operates a charity bicycle shop to help underhoused and low-income persons who need a bicycle as their primary mode of transportation. Here they can either buy a bicycle or get one fixed by donation.

COVID FOOD HAMPERS

CCK delivers food hampers to marginalized persons affected by COVID-19. This program is for families or individuals who have tested positive for COVID-19 or are in mandatory quarantine without family support to help supply them with food.

CLOTHING CUPBOARD

CCK provides clothes to those in need or those trying to get back into the workforce.
